PAU

The Earth and Life Sciences Hub (including Agriculture and Health) of the Pan African University, is organizing a workshop on curriculum development/review for the flagship programmes at the Conference

Centre, University of Ibadan, from Tuesday,24- Thursday,26 May, 2011.

To give an international flavor and Africanness to the various curricula, the African Union Commission, the Proprietor of the Pan African University has reached out to various experts in curriculum development outside the shores of Nigeria. Furthermore, the University of Ibadan has complemented this effort by also inviting experts from outside. The University Community will strikingly benefit from this array of experts during this period. All members of the University Community are therefore enjoined to be part of the process.
