

Institute of Education, University of Ibadan

Short Workshop and Seminar Announcement On: LARGE SCALE ASSESSMENT

Date: Monday, 1st – Friday 5th June, 2015 Duration: 5 Days

Rationale

Some officers in the examination bodies, FME (Examination Division), State Examination Boards, State Examination Unit of the Ministry of Education and Classroom Teachers, though are involved in assessing; possess inadequate knowledge in the concept, principle and practice of assessment. As a way of assisting the officers who are involved in assessing, this course is designed to expose them to rudiments in large scale assessment.

Who Should Attend?

Staff of Examination Bodies, Staff of FME (Examination Division), State Examination Boards and or State Examination Unit of the Ministry of Education, Classroom Teachers

Duration: 5 days

Venue: Institute of Education, University of Ibadan

Objectives

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Trace the history of large scale assessment
- Describe the concepts and principles of large scale assessment system
- Develop and Validate tests
- Administer tests
- Discuss Test Theories (IRT, CTT)
- Perform some Statistical Analysis in Testing

Course Contents

- Historical review of large scale assessment.
- Meaning, concepts and principles of large scale assessment
- Test Development (TD)
- Test Administration (TA)
- Validation and Statistical Analysis in Testing
- Test Theories (IRT, CTT)
- Aptitude & Psychological Testing
- Challenges and Management of Examination

Approach

- Development of comprehensive and participant-friendly modules. The modules will be characterized by easy readability, good content coverage and being interactive as well as activity laden with relevant formative and summative tests.
- Delivery will include Role play, Discussions, Hands-on practice during the period of delivery of each module and Brainstorming or Delphi/syndicate approach.

Contact Officers: Interested Organizations and Participants should contact: Dr. Onuka (08033564064) and Dr. Gbenga Adewale (08033263534)

Course fee: N60, 000.00 per participant (covering Tuition, Refreshment, Lunch, Certificate of Participation, Group Photograph, Writing & Course Materials).

Payment Instructions:

Confirm space availability from the contact officer(s) before payment. After confirmation, payment should be made to any branch of WEMA Bank,

Account name: Finance Office Education, University of Ibadan, Ibadan

Account number: 0120942749 (Sort code: 035190684)

Note: On the plant training for organizations with a large pool of participants can be arranged.

Institute of Education, University of Ibadan

Short Workshop and Seminar Announcement On: CLASSROOM TESTING AND TEST DEVELOPMENT

Date: Monday, 8th – Wednesday 10th June, 2015 Duration: 3 days

Rationale

Subject and Classroom Teachers are saddled with the responsibility of test development in both Primary and Secondary schools in Nigeria. A numbers of these teachers who are involved in test construction and item writing possess little knowledge in the concept, principle and practice of test construction and item writing. As a way of assisting the teachers who are involved item writing, this course is designed to expose them to rudiments in test development and item writing.

Who Should Attend?

- Subject and Classroom teachers in Public and Private Schools (Primary and Secondary).
- Heads of Subject Department in Schools. Principals, Vice Principals and Head-teachers.

Duration: 3 days Venue: Institute of Education, University of Ibadan

Objectives

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Trace the history of Test development
- Describe the concepts and principles of test development and item banking
- Develop and Validate tests
- Administer tests
- Develop Taxonomy of Objectives and writing of Table of Specification
- Perform some Statistical Analysis in Testing

Course Contents

- Historical review of test development
- Meaning, concepts and principles of test construction and item banking
- Development of Taxonomy of Objectives and Writing of Table of Specification
- Quantitative Test Item
- Test Administration
- Qualitative Methods in Testing

Approach

- Development of comprehensive and participant-friendly modules. The modules will be characterized by easy readability, good content coverage and being interactive as well as activity laden with relevant formative and summative tests.
- Delivery will include Role play, Discussions, Hands-on practice during the period of delivery of each module and Brainstorming or Delphi/syndicate approach.

Contact Officers: Interested Organizations and Participants should contact: Dr. Onuka (08033564064) and Dr. Gbenga Adewale (08033263534)

Course fee: N30, 000.00 per participant (covering Tuition, Refreshment, Lunch, Certificate of Participation, Group Photograph, Writing & Course Materials).

Payment Instructions:

Confirm space availability from the contact officer(s) before payment. After confirmation, payment should be made to any branch of WEMA Bank,

Account name: Finance Office Education, University of Ibadan, Ibadan

Account number: 0120942749 (Sort code: 035190684)

Note: On the plant training for schools with a large pool of participants can be arranged.