EID-UL-MAULUD: FG DECLARES PUBLIC HOLIDAY

The Federal Government has declared Tuesday, 25 August 2026, as a public holiday to mark the Islamic festival of Eid-ul-Maulud, the birth of the Holy Prophet Muhammad.

The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Kayode O. Adebawale, mni, FAS, fspsp, congratulates Muslim Ummah within the University community on this occasion.

He urged the Muslim Ummah and all Nigerians to imbibe the spirit of patience, sacrifice, and resilience.

The Vice-Chancellor implored them to use the opportunity of the period to pray for enduring peace and a more prosperous egalitarian nation.

Work resumes on Wednesday, 26 August 2026.

However, officers on essential duties are expected to do the needful.

Thank you.
